SUZIE WILHELM

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR!

Some words of gratitude are necessary after our February snowstorm. First, we need to thank our maintenance crew for their long hours in clearing snow. They were here all night on Wednesday, most of the day Thursday, and again Friday. In my previous parishes, we hired companies to clear the snow and had to wait as they took care of other customers. It is a blessing to have equipment and dedicated workers able to do the job here at St. Charles.

A thanks too is due to Bob Carroll, our Business Manager. He was here throughout the snow days answering phone calls, copying bulletins, paying bills, and keeping the parish running.

A word on last week's bulletin: due to snow delays, we didn't receive last week's bulletin in time for the weekend. We printed a few hundred on the parish office copier, but underestimated a parish full of sturdy Catholics who show up for Mass even when there is ice in the parking lot. We quickly ran out of our copied bulletins. The bulletin is always available on our parish website, stcharlesfortwayne.org. For those who don't often look at the website, there is a lot of other useful information there as well, including an ongoing series of photos of the progress in our church renovation.

The Borromeo Bash was an outstanding event last weekend. We are also grateful to the many workers who made it possible and to all of the parishioners who took part and supported the effort. Thankfully, the snow was cleared in time for the event and we had a great turnout, a wonderful meal and a lot of fun together. Matt and Kari Smith have been the driving force behind this event for the past four years and they are stepping down as chairs. We offer thanks especially to them.

As we are gearing up for Lent, mark your calendar for a Thursday evening series featuring Fr. Tom, Fr. Koehl and Casey Ryan. Presentations will be offered on February 24, March 3 and March 10, at 7:00 p.m. in the Hession Center. More details will follow.

Renovation Week Six. Despite two snow days, the progress has been impressive. Most of the terrazzo is poured on the north side of the church, the new back wall is now framed between church and sanctuary, and we are excited to have seven crates of marble delivered from Italy. (See photo.) The marble will be used on the altar, the ambo, and the back wall. Some stalling points: in order to raise the chapel ceiling, heating pipes will have to be moved and the heat will have to be turned off for a couple of days. We are waiting for some warmer days. More troubling, the chemicals needed for the terrazzo floor are still not available. If you would like to add a petition to your daily prayers, please join me in asking for Resufloor Epoxy Matrix, Part B.

Fr. Tom

“This Week in RCIA”
February 15

This week in RCIA, we will take a look at Commandments four through ten. These Commandments of the Decalogue concern our relationship with one another. After love of God, our second call to love extends to our neighbors. God created us for relationship. Because of the disorder brought about by Original Sin, we can hurt the ones we are called to love the most. This set of Commandments is meant to govern our interactions with each other as we journey toward God together. Please pray for our catechumens and candidates, Aaron, Sabrina, Susan, Bryan, and Jena as they continue their journey in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

BORROMEO BASH “THANK YOU”

What a great time we had at Borromeo Bash 2022! A huge THANK YOU! to all who came to our event and for all the donations, the sponsorships, and the people who "won" their auction items! We are excited to announce that we achieved our fundraising goal!!!! We will share our total as soon as a few more details are finalized. As always, our parish proves its generosity through supporting our event. We are so blessed with a parish that is full of friends and family and we know everyone would agree the fellowship with our church family was the best part of the evening.
