BAPTISM CLASS FOR PARENTS

A Baptism class will be held at St. Charles Wednesday, March 8, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. in the Parish Office Basement. To register, please call the Parish Office, 482-2186. Next class is Wednesday, May 3, 2023.

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

An idea for Lent: Check out Formed.org. This website has a fabulous array of good Catholic content: movies, kid shows, teen talks, Bible studies, conversion stories, daily reflections, talks about addiction, grief, marriage, parenting, and lots more. Our parish subscribes to the website and you can sign in for free. A note: when the website asks for the parish name, I typed in St. Charles Borromeo and found a list of other St. Charles parishes, but not ours. Instead, type in our zip code, 46815, or our parish code, 600e3. You won't believe how many good options you will find on this site.

Over the past couple of weeks we have had microphone troubles. Some of our new equipment (still under warranty) has been giving us trouble. The folks who installed the system have been working with us, and I hope that the problems will have been ironed out by the time you read this bulletin.

Our parish catechumens and candidates are nearly ready to join us as Catholics. This weekend we are sending them to the Cathedral for the Bishop's blessing at the Rite of Election. There is a ritual which is taking place at our 9:00 Mass in which we pray over them before sending them off to the Cathedral in the afternoon. Please remember these good folks in prayer.

On Wednesday, we are hosting a big diocesan event here at St. Charles, called Pueri Cantores. Selected singers from each of our Catholic grades schools and high schools are meeting at St. Charles for a day of rehearsals and then a 3:00 p.m. Mass with Bishop Rhoades. The music at the Mass will be outstanding, with several hundred children singing classical sacred music. We are honored to host this event at St. Charles this year. I am sure that there will be seating available for anyone who would like to join us for the Mass.

Mark your calendar for our parish Lenten Morning of Reflection on Saturday, March 18. We will begin with the 8:15 a.m. Mass, have time for breakfast, talks, and adoration. We searched far and wide for the best speakers in Northern Indiana. Unfortunately, none of them were available. Therefore, Fr. Koehl and I will be the presenters. Please join us for some good Lenten time of prayer and reflection.

March Pilgrimage Site

Most Precious Blood – Ft. Wayne was founded by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood and features a stained-glass window depicting Christ offering the Eucharist during the Road to Emmaus account. It also includes a statue and first-class relic of St. Gaspar del Bufalo, who founded the Missionaries. Present also are a statue and first-class relic of Pope St. Pius X, who declared that children could receive their first Holy Communion at the age of seven. 17 banners with scripture passages and quotes from various saints regarding the Eucharist are on display. For information and how to join the monthly pilgrimage and receive a free Catholic gift, go to diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.

Eucharistic Saint for March St. Katharine Drexel

She was born into a prominent and wealthy Philadelphia family in 1858. Her parents were great philanthropists with a great affinity for the poor. Growing up Katharine developed a great love for the Eucharist. Her time in prayer and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament helped develop a deep loving relationship with Christ. When she entered religious life, the local paper reported "Miss Drexel Enters a Catholic Convent – Gives up Seven Million." St. Katharine founded the Sisters of the Most Blessed Sacrament to serve Black and Indian Missions in the United States. Her life gives witness to the intense bond between eucharistic devotion and a life of service. St. Katharine's feast day is March 3rd. Learn more about her Eucharistic devotion at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist."

Eucharistic Reflection for March – Conversion.

"At Mass, we say: 'Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.' Venial sins damage but do not destroy our communion with God and the Church. Reception of the Eucharist strengthens our charity and wipes away venial sins, while helping us to avoid serious sins. Mortal sins do rupture our communion with God and the Church. One commits a mortal sin by freely, knowingly, and willingly choosing to do something that involves grave matter and that is opposed to love of God and neighbor. A person in the state of mortal sin is not to receive Holy Communion without having received the Sacrament of Reconciliation. One who receives Holy Communion in a state of mortal sin does not receive the grace of the sacrament, but instead commits the sin of sacrilege by failing to show the reverence due our Eucharistic Lord." Read this month's full reflection at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist."

As part of the Eucharistic Revival, there will be a Revive City-Wide Mission Night on Wed., April 12, 7:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m. at Bishop Dwenger High School, led by Damascus Missionaries. It will be a night with praise and worship, an inspirational speaker, and Eucharistic Adoration. Renew your own faith and invite a friend to come with you to encounter our God who is living and active. To reserve your seat, register at diocesefwsb.org/revive

Raul and Lilian have faced many challenges while trying to provide for their family and pursue their dreams in Guatemala.
