A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR!

This weekend, Brian Shuler and Jena Rejak will make a Profession of Faith in the Catholic Church at the 9:00 A.M. Mass. They will then be Confirmed and receive their first Holy Communion. We welcome them into our Church family and we thank the Lord for leading them here. We are also grateful to Casey Ryan, who leads our parish RCIA. If anyone may be interested in joining the Catholic Church, or just learning more, call the Parish Office and ask for Casey.

We thank everyone who made a gift to Redeemer Radio during last week's Sharathon. I haven't heard numbers yet, but I know that our parish responded with generosity.

We are grateful to our neighboring parishes as they have welcomed us to their churches for funerals during our renovation. Since the renovation began, we have celebrated St. Charles funerals at St. Jude, St. John, New Haven, and the Cathedral. As a precaution, in case the renovation isn't done on time, we have also reserved neighboring churches as a backup for our weddings scheduled in late spring and early summer. We are grateful for helpful neighboring parishes.

As expected, gym Masses present challenges. One of the challenges is the distraction of traffic to and from restrooms during Mass. We are trying to help with this by opening the hallway door in the lobby. Folks can now exit the gym and go to a restroom down the hallway. This should be a little quieter and more discreet. Another great challenge in the gym faces our young parents with babies. We have no cry room, nor do we have a Gathering Space with glass doors and speakers, nor do we have a quick and easy exit when a baby begins to cry. When a baby becomes very loud, the best option parents have is to clunk down the wooden bleachers and go to the lobby, where they can't see or hear much of the Mass. As we all feel for our young parents, I encourage them not to give up. Our little ones belong here. We look forward to the day that we will have a church again and options are easier.

Renovation Week 12: The project is moving quickly and the excitement is mounting. Our altar is now covered in marble, and it is beautiful. Today's photo shows workers placing the pelican on the front of the altar. The marble is laid out for the back wall of the sanctuary and ready to be installed. We can see the beauty of the colors and patterns of the stonework. Around the periphery of the church, the suspended ceiling and lights are going in. The Stations of the Cross are painted and ready to install and the tabernacle remodel is in the works, with an opening cut in the back and a modified lining and new door under construction. The upholstery has been removed from our wooden chairs as we work to ready them for new upholstery, matching the cushions on the pews. I'm told that our pews may begin to return to the church this week. While no one wants to make a commitment yet, it looks to me like we may be on time for our late May completion. I can't wait.

Fr. Tom

PASCHAL WATCH

Even though the Church is closed, this year we will still observe the Paschal Watch in the Gathering Space. The Gathering Space will be open for private prayer from just after Mass on Holy Thursday until before Mass on Holy Saturday. In Scripture, we are told that when the time of His passion was approaching, Jesus was overcome by what He was about to experience that He sweated drops of blood. At that time, he asked His apostles to spend an hour with Him in prayer. Maybe now He is asking us the same questions. Will you spend one hour with Jesus? We would like to have at least 4 people praying at all times. There will be sign-up sheets on the table beginning next weekend.

ST. CHARLES VOCATION COMMITTEE

Like the father in the Gospel, God welcomes us home in spite of our sinfulness, and call us to a life of holiness. Where are you at home? Are you being called to life as a Priest of Religious?

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Loving God, you have made us in your image and likeness, and for this we will praise you forever.

As we pray this Prayer for Vocations, we call to mind the priests and consecrated religious whose lives have been instruments of holiness.

Thank you Lord for the gift and inspiration each of them has been, proving that your steadfast love endures forever.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Mother and St. Charles Borromeo, we pray to you Lord Jesus, that more men and women will open their hearts to your loving plan. We pray especially for those whom you are calling to serve the church as Priests, Deacons, Sisters and Brothers. Help them to hear and answer your call to discipleship.

Bless our families Lord, so that they may become instruments of holiness and peace.

Let us give thanks to the Lord for He is good and His steadfast love endures forever.

Amen

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion
to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.
