

In Honor of Our Mothers

ST. CHARLES BORROMEO CATHOLIC CHURCH

SUNDAY, MAY 14, 2023

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The mission of St. Charles is to spread the life-saving message of Jesus Christ through the Sacraments, Prayer and Service to others.

God took the fragrance of a flower...

The majesty of a tree...

The gentleness of morning dew...

The calm of a quiet sea...

The beauty of the twilight hour...

The soul
of a starry night...

The laughter of a
rippling brook...

The grace of a bird
in flight...

Then God fashioned
from these things

A creation like no other,

And when his masterpiece was through

He called it simply -

Mother.

MOTHER'S DAY PRAYER

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend, we celebrate Mother's Day. This is not an event on the Church calendar, but a civic event. And yet, it is a beautiful time to remember a beautiful vocation. We pray for the women who gave us birth, the women who raised us, and the women who have been our spiritual guides in life.

A reminder of some calendar confusion: In the U.S., the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord is a Holy Day of Obligation. The confusion comes because we used to celebrate this feast on a Thursday, and a few dioceses in our country still do celebrate the feast this Thursday. However, most of the country, including our diocese, celebrates the Ascension next Sunday. We have no extra day of obligation this week.

I was up very early last weekend to watch the coronation ceremony from London. I am fascinated by the pomp, the pageantry, and the history of the event. I am left very uncomfortable, though, seeing the mix of Church and State. It seems to me that it took 20 centuries for the Catholic Church to learn the lesson that it is not a good idea for the Church to endorse political leaders or governments. And for a monarch to inherit the title as head of a church regardless of their theological background, their personal morality or even their interest in the faith—that surely can't be a good idea. I like to watch the pomp, but I plan to remain American and Catholic.

Another interesting aspect of the coronation: before receiving the crown, King Charles was anointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury. The commentator said that he would be anointed on the head, the hands, and on the breast. The king was taken behind a screen for the anointing, I presume to open his shirt. I was especially interested in this because of our Rite of Baptism. After a baby is baptized, we anoint the child with Sacred Chrism and pronounce that the child is now priest, prophet and king. A priest is one who has a responsibility to pray for others, a prophet has the responsibility to share the faith, and a king is one who has responsibility to serve others and build a world of peace and justice. The anointing at baptism has clear roots. When a priest is ordained, his hands are anointed with Sacred Chrism. We have Old Testament stories of oil poured over the head to anoint a new prophet. I was interested to learn about the anointing of a king at a coronation.

This Saturday, two young men from our diocese will be ordained deacons. The ordination will take place at 11:00 on May 20 at the Fort Wayne Cathedral. With only two being ordained, I would anticipate that there will be plenty of seating. Please pray for Oscar Duarte and Caleb Kruse, soon to be ordained deacons.

The St. Vincent DePaul Society

The St. Charles Council of St. Vincent dePaul Society will meet on Monday, May 15, at 7:00 p.m. in the Hession Center, Room B. Our organization does many different corporal works of mercy, such as feeding the hungry and clothing the naked. If this is something that is important to you, please plan to attend our next meeting to find out how you can lend a hand.

During the month of April, we were able to help 143 individuals consisting of 57 adults and 86 children. We provided $ 2,555.00 in rent and motel stays, $ 911.10 in utility payments, $ 475.00 in cards for gas and food, $ 1,090.50 for furniture and household items and $ 228.00 for food which provided 1200 pounds of food. In addition, we give $ 200.00 monthly to St. Patrick's Parish to help an immigrant family. We spent a total of $ 5,460.00 to help the needy.

If you have furniture that is in good repair that you are no longer using, please keep the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store in mind. By giving them a call to pick up your furniture, you will be eliminating a chore for yourself and helping a needy family. Please call 260-456-3561 to schedule a pickup. Only through your generosity have we been able to help so many.

We are very grateful for your continued support. Thank you.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE

It remains important for our Church to protect children and young persons from the evils of abuse. The Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend remains committed to upholding and following its guidelines, policies and procedures that were implemented for the protection of children and young people. These can be reviewed on the diocese's website, www.diocesefwsb.org, under "Youth Protection."

If you have reason to believe that a minor may be a victim of child abuse or neglect, Indiana law requires that you report this to civil authorities. If you or someone you know was abused as a child or young person by an adult, you are encouraged to notify appropriate civil authorities of that abuse. In addition, if the alleged abuser is or was a member of the clergy or anyone ministering on behalf of the Catholic Church, you are encouraged to contact Mary Glowaski, victim assistance coordinator, at (260) 399-1458 or mglowaski@diocesefwsb.org, Rev. Mark Gurtner, vicar general of the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend, at P.O. Box 390, Fort Wayne, Indiana, 46801; at (260) 399-1419; or at mgurtner@diocesefwsb.org, or Joe Garcia, ministry specialist for victim assistance and safe environment, at (260) 399-1404 or jgarcia@diocesefwsb.org. The diocese is committed to helping prevent the abuse or neglect of children and young people and to assist those who have suffered harm as a result of such abuse.
