SANDY & CHARLES FAZEKAS

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR!

I don't know numbers, but last weekend's bake sale attracted a lot of baked goods and a lot of shoppers. After a couple of years of pandemic bake sales without baked goods, it is good to see some return to normal. Thank you for your support. We especially thank our hard-working Vocation Committee.

As announced last week, we are really short on ministers for all kinds of duties at Mass. Sacristans come early to set up books and vessels before Mass and then put things away after Mass. Ushers greet people before Mass, take up the collection and help with Offertory Gifts, and then pass out bulletins after Mass. Lectors proclaim the Scriptures. Extraordinary Ministers help in serving Holy Communion. Cantors and choir members use their voices to lead us in prayer. If you might be able to help in one of these ministries, please let us know. We will be in touch, find out where you could fit in, and provide the necessary training. Go to our parish website, stcharlesfortwayne.org and click on the orange banner on the top of the home page, leave your name on a sign-up sheet in the Gathering Space, or call or e-mail anyone on the parish staff.

Fr. Koehl and Fr. Stephen Felicichia record a weekly podcast called Deus Vult, talking about various matters of the faith. They have developed quite a following and are near the end of their second year. They normally record from our rectory basement, but the 100th episode will be recorded with a live audience in our church on Thursday evening, September 1, at 7:15 p.m. Everyone is welcome to take part.

Please mark your calendar and spread the word of Cardinal Fest, coming the weekend of September 9-11. A teen dance, food, kid games, bingo, rectory chapel tours, a beer tent, cornhole, and a 5K Run are all on the schedule. This is a chance to have fun as a parish and also a chance to invite neighbors and friends.

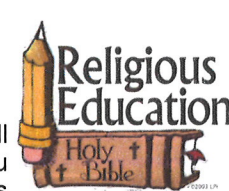

Fr. Tom

Please pray for the following members of our parish community who will soon marry.

—Amanda Miller—Joshua Keating

Where: In the Church

This Week in RCIA August 30

This week in RCIA, our focus will be to gain a better understanding of the Trinity. How can God be three persons? We will examine some of the controversies that arose in the early Church as She sought to better put into words the mystery of God. We will also examine the gift of faith. God is knocking on the door to our heart and He wants us to open our heart to Him. Please pray for our catechumens and candidates, Bill, Chris, Amy, Josh and Madison as they continue their journey in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

ATTENTION: Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Sacristans

DEADLINE IS September 9, 2022

The new schedule is in preparation for October 1, 2022 thru January 29, 2023, so please submit your availability information via the web terminal, or email at ministries@scbfw.org. You may also call the office, 484-6570.

EUCCHARISTIC REFLECTION FOR AUGUST THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS
 Without supernatural grace, due to the original sin of Adam and Eve and our own sins, we are profoundly alienated from God. However, for love of each one of us, Christ freely offered His life on the cross to restore us to Himself, that we may become children of God. On the cross, He is both the priest offering a sacrifice to the Father and the victim being offered. The Eucharist makes present to us the one sacrifice of Christ by which we are reconciled to the Father. In the Mass, we are drawn into Jesus' perfect offering of love, so that we may offer ourselves together with Him to the Father. Furthermore, this great sacrament is also a participation in the worship offered in heaven, in and through Christ, by the angels and saints. Learn more at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist
