A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Christmas is nearly here! Please invite friends and relatives to join us for a Christmas Mass. We would especially welcome those who have no church and those who haven't been active in a church. This is the time of year when people are thinking about faith and probably the easiest time of year to make an invitation. Catholic and non-Catholic alike, our guests and visitors will be welcomed.

Our Christmas Mass schedule is a bit confusing because Christmas falls on a Monday this year. The Sunday Mass schedule for December 24 is the same as always, minus the Sunday evening Mass. Sunday Masses will be offered on Saturday at 5:00 p.m. and on Sunday morning at 7:30 a.m., 9:00 a.m., and 11:00 a.m. Then, four hours later, we begin our Christmas Masses. Christmas Masses will be offered on Sunday at 4:00 p.m., 6:30 p.m. and midnight, and Monday morning at 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.

We expect a big overflow crowd at the Christmas Eve 4:00 p.m. Mass, with lot of little ones, a lot of noise and a lot of motion. It is a beautiful gathering of the People of God, but you will need to come early to get a seat. For those who would like a Mass that is a little quieter and less crowded, the Christmas Eve 6:30 p.m. Mass is a great option. It will feature our children's choir, incense, and a beautiful liturgy without so much crowd. The Midnight Mass is our most formal Mass. There will be a half-hour of prelude music, with the Mass beginning at midnight. The Mass will be concelebrated, beginning in a dark church with a chanted Christmas proclamation and the lighting of candles as we sing Silent Night. The Masses on Christmas morning are also beautiful liturgies with beloved carols and no crowd.

A note about Mass obligations: With Christmas falling on a Monday, we will have a Sunday Mass obligation and also a Christmas Mass obligation. That means that we all need to choose both a Sunday Mass and a Christmas Mass. (I will add to the confusion: Because of the timing, the 4:00 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Masses on Christmas Eve would count for either the Sunday obligation or the Christmas obligation, but not both). Bottom line: Two Masses next weekend.

There are still many opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation before Christmas. There is a Penance Service at St. Jude at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, 12/18, and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, 12/19. We have our daily 7:30 a.m.-8:00 a.m. confessions, Thursday evening 7:00 p.m. confessions, and Saturday 2:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m. confessions.

As you may expect, I am hearing a lot of ideas these days for spending money in the parish. Feel free to pass on your ideas. It is going to take some time to zero in on plans and decide on the wisest course of action with our recent inheritance.

Fr. Tom
