A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We offer sincere thanks to all who put so much work into our Christmas liturgies this year: our musicians, our church decorators, our maintenance crew, the volunteers who managed the Advent Giving Tree gifts, our liturgical ministers and planners, our ministers to the homebound, and the many others who helped us to celebrate in such a beautiful way.

Our new parish picture directory is not done yet, but it shouldn't be much longer. We have just received proofs from the printing company, awaiting our corrections and approval before the final printing. When the books do arrive, we will organize a crew to distribute them after Masses to all who had their photos taken.

For the past few generations we have not had enough priestly vocations in our country to provide priests for all of our parishes. However, we have been greatly blessed by the ministry of many priests who come to us from other countries—including, of course, Fr. James. The weeks after Christmas are a popular time for some of these priests to return home and spend time with their families. Over the next seven weeks St. Charles priests will be covering a number of weekend Masses in Freemont, Pierceton, and Besancon. We are happy to help our brothers. And we are hoping for weekends without much snow or ice.

Mark your calendar for a special event on the evening of Thursday, January 18. Jason Shanks, the President of the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, will give a talk at St. Charles at 7:30 p.m. in the church. Jason will share his conversion story, his experience in nearly dying of Covid, and his reflections on the Eucharistic Revival and the means of building reverence and focus on the Mass. I have been told that he is a great speaker and I would highly recommend this event.

I point out another event to mark on the calendar. Our parish will have Forty Hours Devotion on February 25-27. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in the church from Sunday evening through Tuesday evening for quiet adoration. Father Patrick Mary Briscoe is coming from Rhode Island to speak on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings during that event. Fr. Patrick Mary grew up at St. Charles, attended our school and Bishop Dwenger. (He will be remembered as Ryan Briscoe). Since joining the Dominicans and being ordained a priest in 2016, he has authored books, taught in a university, and been named Editor of Our Sunday Visitor. The US bishops have listed him as an official speaker for the Eucharistic Revival. It will be exciting to have him return to St. Charles.

Fr. Tom

Volunteer Opportunity

Science Fair Judges Needed - The traditional St. Charles Borromeo School, in-person, board-with-presentation, Science Fair is back! This means that 40-50 volunteers are needed as judges! The St. Charles School Science Fair is scheduled for Thursday, January 25, 2024. All judging will start at 8:15 a.m. and continue until 2:00 p.m. Depending on presentations, we might end early. Lunch will be available for judges. Anyone interested in helping to judge the science fair, please click on this QR code and complete the Google form. All judges must have a current background check completed with the parish/school within the last 4 years. This can be done on the school website at <https://www.stcharlesschoolfw.org/safe-environment-certification>. If you have any questions about judging, please contact the school at schooloffice@stcharlesschoolfw.org Thank you for helping to bring back this wonderful tradition!

O God, Who's mighty Son was born in Bethlehem those days long ago, lead us to that same poor place Mary laid her tiny Child. As you chose the lowly, the outcasts, and the poor to receive the greatest news the world had ever known, so may we worship you in meekness of heart. And as we look in wonder and praise, make us welcome Him in all new life, see Him in the poor and care for His handiwork; the earth, sky and sea. O God, awaken in our hearts, love and gratitude for your infinite goodness and give us your heavenly peace. Amen.

Merry Christmas from Walking with Mom's in Need

Please pray for the following members of our parish community who will soon marry.
