A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We welcome our students back to school this week. School begins on Wednesday morning. It is good to have that life and enthusiasm back in our building. As we continue our project of replacing windows, four classes at a time will be stationed in the white portable classrooms, with a rotation every two months. The project should be completed in February and we'll have everyone back in the building again.

Please join us for a concert in the church next Saturday evening, August 10, at 7:00 p.m. We will have many musicians joining us who were active in the parish in years past.

Everyone is welcome to join us in the Hession Center on Tuesday evening, August 6, at 7:00 p.m. as we welcome some of our local seminarians and their families. Join us for a simple reception with cookies and a chance to hear the stories of these young men.

Next weekend, we will host two lay women who will speak at Mass about the Franciscan Mission Service Missionaries. This is an organization of lay people who serve as missionaries in impoverished parts of the world. Please be generous as we help them to raise the funds for these missions.

We are going to have a meeting for all Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion on Sunday, August 18, at 12:10 p.m. We will meet in church after the 11:00 a.m. Mass to offer prayer together, look through our procedures and scheduling, and address any questions or concerns. We are in need of more ministers who can help at the Sunday 7:30 a.m. Mass and the 5:00 p.m. Sunday evening Mass. If you are not a minister and would be willing to help, contact Karen Hope at khopestcharles@yahoo.com or me at fathertom@scbfw.org. Ministers need to be Confirmed Catholics in good standing with a deep respect for the Blessed Sacrament. Our ministers serve on rotating schedules and we have backups for times when ministers are on vacation or away. Volunteering to help may be a good way to make more of this Eucharistic Revival year.

FRANCISCAN MISSION SERVICE

On August 10-11, St. Charles Borromeo Parish will learn about the ministries of Franciscan Mission Service (FMS). As a Catholic, 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, FMS relies on the prayers and financial support of U.S. parishes to serve communities in South America, the Caribbean, and here in the United States. In anticipation of this message, Franciscan Mission Service invites parishioners to reflect on Pope Francis' words from Evangelii Gaudium: "Every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelization; indeed, anyone who has truly experienced God's saving love does not need much time or lengthy training to go out and proclaim that love." How might you be called to engage in the ministry of evangelization? Some give by going on mission, and some go by giving—with both prayers and donations. To find out more and hear missionaries' first-hand accounts, visit www.franciscanmissionservice.org.
